I reverently believe that the maker who made us all makes everything in New England, but the weather. I don't know who makes that, but I think it must be raw apprentices in the weather-clerks factory who experiment and learn how, in New England, for board and clothes, and then are promoted to make weather for countries that require a good article, and will take their custom elsewhere if they don't get it.

You will be given a post of trust and responsibility. Beware of a dark-haired man with a loud tie. You will be audited by the Internal Revenue Service.

Film bir detektifin bir seri cinayet failinin peşine düşmesi ile başlıyor. Fakat dedektif öykünün daha 20.sında seri cinayetlerin diğer kurbanları gibi kızıl saçlı orta yaşlı ve gözlüklü olduğu için katil tarafından öldürülüyor ve öykü kahramansız kalıyor. İkinci öyküde Agatha Cristie romanlarına bir gönderme yapılmış. Bir intihar olayını araştırmaya başlayan müfettiş Zuarro zekası ver kurnazlığı sayesinde katili buluyor. İdam cezasına çarptırılan katil öldükten sonra slında katilin bu kişi olmadığı, ölen kişinin başka bir tanıdığı olduğu anlaşılıyor. Bu şekilde 3 kişi daha ipe gönderildikten sonra intiharın sözcük anlamından da anlaşılabilceği gibi cinayet olmadığı anlaşılıyor. Sinema otoriteleri bu öyküde yönetmenin sinemaseverleri Agatha Cristie tarzı dedektiflerden tiksindirmeyi amaçladığını ileri sürüyor.

Filmin ilk öykü sonrasında kameramanın deli danalar gibi Manchester sokaklarında yeni bir kahraman aradığı ve boşluğa düşüp bunalıma girdiği sahnesi sinema tarihinin en kurgusuz ve özgür sahnesi olarak kabul ediliyor. Kameramanın üzerinden geçen iki katlı otobüsün kameramanı eziş sesi ise sinema tarihinin en özgün cırc sesi... Sıradışı yönetmenin bu üçlemesi iki öyküden oluşuyor. Yönetmenin film hakkında yapılan eleştirilere verdiği “Ne yani üçleme dedik diye üç film mi çekicez!” demeci sinema tarihinin en saçma demeçlerinden.

Anahtar Kelimeler: orman, havuç, avcılar

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION

Time to be aggressive. Go after a tattooed Virgo. Every why hath a wherefore. – William Shakespeare, "A Comedy of Errors" You have a strong desire for a home and your family interests come first. The bone-chilling scream split the warm summer night in two, the first half being before the scream when it was fairly balmy and calm and pleasant, the second half still balmy and quite pleasant for those who hadn't heard the scream at all, but not calm or balmy or even very nice for those who did hear the scream, discounting the little period of time during the actual scream itself when your ears might have been hearing it but your brain wasn't reacting yet to let you know.[3, 2] – Winning sentence, 1986 Bulwer-Lytton bad fiction contest. Hope that the day after you die is a nice day. The mind is its own place, and in itself Can make a Heav'n of Hell, a Hell of Heav'n. – John Milton Q: How many WASPs does it take to change a light bulb? A: One. Don't kiss an elephant on the lips today. Having nothing, nothing can he lose. – William Shakespeare, "Henry VI" Change your thoughts and you change your world.

1.1 Why to live in a forrest

Table 1.1, Figure 1.1 hede hodo. Tuesday After Lunch is the cosmic time of the week. Rebellion lay in his way, and he found it. – William Shakespeare, "Henry IV" Today's weirdness is tomorrow's reason why. – Hunter S. Thompson Your manuscript is both good and original, but the part that is good is not original and the part that is original is not good. – Samuel Johnson Suspicion always haunts the guilty mind. – Wm. Shakespeare You have been selected for a secret mission.

FORTUNE PROVIDES QUESTIONS FOR THE GREAT ANSWERS: 31 A: Chicken Teriyaki. Q: What is the name of the world's oldest kamikaze pilot? Courage is resistance to fear, mastery of fear—not absence of fear. Except a creature be part coward it is not a compliment to say it is brave; it is merely a loose misapplication of the word. Consider the flea—incomparably the bravest of all the creatures of God, if ignorance of fear were courage. Whether you are asleep or awake he will attack you, caring nothing for the fact that in bulk and strength you are to him as are the massed armies of the earth to a sucking child; he lives both day and night and all days and nights in the very lap of peril and the immediate presence of death, and yet is no more afraid than is the man who walks the streets of a city that was threatened by an earthquake ten centuries before. When we speak of Clive, Nelson, and Putnam as men who "didn't know what fear was," we ought always to add the flea—and put him at the head of the procession. [5] – Mark Twain, "Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar" Q: What's the difference between a Mac and an Etch-a-Sketch? A: You don't have to shake the Mac to clear the screen. You will gain money by a fattening action.

1.2 Potential enemies

You should go home. Don't hate yourself in the morning – sleep till noon. Q: How many Californians does it take to screw in a light bulb? A: Five. One to screw in the light bulb and four to share the experience. (Actually, Californians don't screw in light bulbs, they screw in hot tubs.)

Q: How many Oregonians does it take to screw in a light bulb? A: Three. One to screw in the light bulb and two to fend off all those Californians trying to share the experience. A Tale of Two Cities LITE(tm) – by Charles Dickens

A lawyer who looks like a French Nobleman is executed in his place.

The Metamorphosis LITE(tm) – by Franz Kafka

A man turns into a bug and his family gets annoyed.

Lord of the Rings LITE(tm) – by J. R. R. Tolkien

Some guys take a long vacation to throw a ring into a volcano.

Hamlet LITE(tm) – by Wm. Shakespeare

A college student on vacation with family problems, a screwy girl-friend and a mother who won't act her age. You prefer the company of the opposite sex, but are well liked by your own. You are always busy. Stay away from hurricanes for a while. It's a very lucky week in which to be took dead. – Churchy La Femme Q: Why did the lone ranger kill Tonto? A: He found out what "kimosabe" really means. Afternoon very favorable for romance. Try a single person for a change.

Reader, suppose you were an idiot. And suppose you were a member of Congress. But I repeat myself. – Mark Twain Q: Why do firemen wear red suspenders? A: To conform with departmental regulations concerning uniform dress. There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, than are dreamt of in your philosophy. – Wm. Shakespeare, "Hamlet" Q: Why should you always serve a Southern Carolina football man soup in a plate? A: 'Cause if you give him a bowl, he'll throw it away. A Tale of Two Cities LITE(tm) – by Charles Dickens

A man in love with a girl who loves another man who looks just like him has his head chopped off in France because of a mean lady who knits.

The Odyssey LITE(tm) – by Homer

After working late, a valiant warrior gets lost on his way home. Tonight's the night: Sleep in a eucalyptus tree. You will remember something that you should not have forgotten. Q: Why did the lone ranger kill Tonto? A: He found out what "kimosabe" really means. Chicken Little only has to be right once. Gone With The Wind LITE(tm) – by Margaret Mitchell

A woman only likes men she can't have and the South gets trashed.

Gift of the Magi LITE(tm) – by O. Henry

A husband and wife forget to register their gift preferences.

The Old Man and the Sea LITE(tm) – by Ernest Hemingway

An old man goes fishing, but doesn't have much luck.

Q: What do you call 15 blondes in a circle? A: A dope ring.

Q: Why do blondes put their hair in ponytails? A: To cover up the valve stem. The lovely woman-child Kaa was mercilessly chained to the cruel post of the warrior-chief Beast, with his barbarian tribe now stacking wood at her nubile feet, when the strong clear voice of the poetic and heroic Handsomas roared, 'Flick your Bic, crisp that chick, and you'll feel my steel through your last meal!' – Winning sentence, 1984 Bulwer-Lytton bad fiction contest. Many pages make a thick book, except for pocket Bibles which are on very very thin paper. Never laugh at live dragons. – Bilbo Baggins [J.R.R. Tolkien, "The Hobbit"] It's a very lucky week in which to be took dead. – Churchy La Femme The lunatic, the lover, and the poet, Are of imagination all compact... – Wm. Shakespeare, "A Midsummer Night's Dream" ROMEO: Courage, man; the hurt cannot be much. MERCUTIO: No, 'tis not so deep as a well, nor so wide as a church-door; but 'tis enough, 'twill serve. Don't read everything you believe. Never look up when dragons fly overhead. Something's rotten in the state of Denmark. – Shakespeare

1.3 Scope of the document

You will be Told about it Tomorrow. Go Home and Prepare Thyself. The only people for me are the mad ones – the ones who are mad to live, mad to talk, mad to be saved, desirous of everything at the same time, the ones who never yawn or say a commonplace thing, but burn, burn, burn like fabulous yellow Roman candles. – Jack Kerouac, "On the Road" Your mode of life will be changed for the better because of good news soon. Zounds! I was never so bethumped with words since I first called my brother's father dad. – William Shakespeare, "Kind John" Q: Why does Washington have the most lawyers per capita and New Jersey the most toxic waste dumps? A: God gave New Jersey first choice. For there are moments when one can neither think nor feel. And if one can neither think nor feel, she thought, where is one? – Virginia Woolf, "To the Lighthouse"

[Quoted in "VMS Internals and Data Structures", V4.4, when referring to powerfail recovery.] The lovely woman-child Kaa was mercilessly chained to the cruel post of the warrior-chief Beast, with his barbarian tribe now stacking wood at her nubile feet, when the strong clear voice of the poetic and heroic Handsomas roared, 'Flick your Bic, crisp that chick, and you'll feel my steel through your last meal!' – Winning sentence, 1984 Bulwer-Lytton bad fiction contest. FORTUNE PROVIDES QUESTIONS FOR THE GREAT ANSWERS: 4 A: Go west, young man, go west! Q: What do wabbits do when they get tiwed of wunning awound? You feel a whole lot more like you do now than you did when you used to. The very ink with which all history is written is merely fluid prejudice. – Mark Twain

You see, I consider that a man's brain originally is like a little empty attic, and you have to stock it with such furniture as you choose. A fool takes in all the lumber of every sort he comes across, so that the knowledge which might be useful to him gets crowded out, or at best is jumbled up with a lot of other things, so that he has difficulty in laying his hands upon it. Now the skilful workman is very careful indeed as to what he takes into his brain-attic. He will have nothing but the tools which may help him in doing his work, but of these he has a large assortment, and all in the most perfect order. It is a mistake to think that that little room has elastic walls and can distend to any extent. Depend upon it there comes a time when for every addition of knowledge you forget something that you knew before. It is of the highest importance, therefore, not to have useless facts elbowing out the useful ones. – Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, "A Study in Scarlet" You have a deep appreciation of the arts and music. Q: What do little WASPs want to be when they grow up? A: The very best person they can possibly be. Q: What do you call a blind, deaf-mute, quadraplegic Virginian? A: Trustworthy. People are beginning to notice you. Try dressing before you leave the house. Don't tell any big lies today. Small ones can be just as effective. It was all so different before everything changed. You seek to shield those you love and you like the role of the provider. Beauty and harmony are as necessary to you as the very breath of life. You will obey or molten silver will be poured into your ears.

For the fashion of Minas Tirith was such that it was built on seven levels, each delved into a hill, and about each was set a wall, and in each wall was a gate. – J.R.R. Tolkien, "The Return of the King"

[Quoted in "VMS Internals and Data Structures", V4.4, when referring to system overview.]

An old man goes fishing, but doesn't have much luck. Q: Why is Poland just like the United States? A: In the United States you can't buy anything for zlotys and in Poland you can't either, while in the U.S. you can get whatever you want for dollars, just as you can in Poland. – being told in Poland, 1987 All say, "How hard it is that we have to die"–a strange complaint to come from the mouths of people who have had to live. – Mark Twain, "Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar" Generosity and perfection are your everlasting goals.

Troubled day for virgins over 16 who are beautiful and wealthy and live in eucalyptus trees. Q: Who cuts the grass on Walton's Mountain? A: Lawn Boy. You will remember,

You will remember something that you should not have forgotten. Q: How many hardware engineers does it take to change a light bulb? A: None. We'll fix it in software.

Q: How many system programmers does it take to change a light bulb? A: None. The application can work around it.

If you learn one useless thing every day, in a single year you'll learn 365 useless things. Your mode of life will be changed for the better because of new developments. Your love life will be happy and harmonious. Q: Why don't lawyers go to the beach? A: The cats keep trying to bury them. FORTUNE PROVIDES QUESTIONS FOR THE GREAT ANSWERS: 31 A: Chicken Teriyaki. Q: What is the name of the world's oldest kamikaze pilot? You're definitely on their list. The question to ask next is what list it is. Alas, how love can trifle with itself! – William Shakespeare, "The Two Gentlemen of Verona" Your business will assume vast proportions. Nothing so needs reforming as other people's habits. – Mark Twain, "Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar" Your aim is high and to the right.

You will contract a rare disease. You will gain money by an illegal action. If you tell the truth you don't have to remember anything. – Mark Twain Today is the first day of the rest of the mess. When I reflect upon the number of disagreeable people who I know who have gone to a better world, I am moved to lead a different life. – Mark Twain, "Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar" Do something unusual today. Pay a bill. For courage mounteth with occasion. – William Shakespeare, "King John" Wagner's music is better than it sounds. – Mark Twain Caution: breathing may be hazardous to your health. Today is National Existential Ennui Awareness Day.

THAT’S ALL FOLKS

Q: How many Californians does it take to screw in a light bulb? A: Five. One to screw in the light bulb and four to share the experience. (Actually, Californians don’t screw in light bulbs, they screw in hot tubs.)

Q: How many Oregonians does it take to screw in a light bulb? A: Three. One to screw in the light bulb and two to fend off all those Californians trying to share the experience. Caution: breathing may be hazardous to your health. Q: What do you call a boomerang that doesn’t come back? A: A stick. You have a strong appeal for members of your own sex. Q: What do you call a half-dozen Indians with Asian flu? A: Six sick Sikhs (sic). Q: How many Martians does it take to screw in a light bulb? A: One and a half. Don’t let your mind wander – it’s too little to be let out alone. Steady movement is more important than speed, much of the time. So long as there is a regular progression of stimuli to get your mental hooks into, there is room for lateral movement. Once this begins, its rate is a matter of discretion. – Corwin, Prince of Amber How apt the poor are to be proud. – William Shakespeare, "Twelfth-Night" Avoid reality at all costs.

2.1 Is it really all?

You see, I consider that a man’s brain originally is like a little empty attic, and you have to stock it with such furniture as you choose. A fool takes in all the lumber of every sort he comes across, so that the knowledge which might be useful to him gets crowded out, or at best is jumbled up with a lot of other things, so that he has difficulty in laying his hands upon it. Now the skilful workman is very careful indeed as to what he takes into his brain-attic. He will have nothing but the tools which may help him in doing his work, but of these he has a large assortment, and all in the most perfect order. It is a mistake to think that that little room has elastic walls and can distend to any extent. Depend upon it there comes a time when for every addition of knowledge you forget something that you knew before. It is of the highest importance, therefore, not to have useless facts elbowing out the useful ones. – Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, "A Study in Scarlet" Caution: breathing may be hazardous to your health. Q: What looks like a cat, flies like a bat, brays like a donkey, and plays like a monkey? A: Nothing. Suspicion always haunts the guilty mind. – Wm. Shakespeare Always the dullness of the fool is the whetstone of the wits. – William Shakespeare, "As You Like It" Q: How many hardware engineers does it take to change a light bulb? A: None. We'll fix it in software.

Q: How many system programmers does it take to change a light bulb? A: None. The application can work around it.

Q: How many software engineers does it take to change a light bulb? A: None. We'll document it in the manual.

Q: How many tech writers does it take to change a light bulb? A: None. The user can figure it out. Q: Why was Stonehenge abandoned? A: It wasn't IBM compatible. Why is it that we rejoice at a birth and grieve at a funeral? It is because we are not the person involved. – Mark Twain, "Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar" Tomorrow will be cancelled due to lack of interest. Stay away from hurricanes for a while.

Write yourself a threatening letter and pen a defiant reply. You're growing out of some of your problems, but there are others that you're growing into. The holy passion of Friendship is of so sweet and steady and loyal and enduring a nature that it will last through a whole lifetime, if not asked to lend money. – Mark Twain, "Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar" What no spouse of a writer can ever understand is that a writer is working when he's staring out the window. You may my glories and my state dispose, But not my griefs; still am I king of those. – William Shakespeare, "Richard II" We should be careful to get out of an experience only the wisdom that is in it - and stay there, lest we be like the cat that sits down on a hot stove-lid. She will never sit down on a hot stove-lid again - and that is well; but also she will never sit down on a cold one any more. – Mark Twain Accent on helpful side of your nature. Drain the moat. This is the first age that's paid much attention to the future, which is a little ironic since we may not have one. – Arthur Clarke Your mode of life will be changed for the better because of new developments. Q: What is printed on the bottom of beer bottles in Minnesota? A: Open other end.

Your lover will never wish to leave you. If you pick up a starving dog and make him prosperous, he will not bite you. This is the principal difference between a dog and a man. –

Mark Twain, "Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar" "I understand this is your first dead client," Sabian was saying. The absurdity of the statement made me want to laugh but they don't call me Deadpan Allie and lie. – Pat Cadigan, "Mindplayers" Q: What's hard going in and soft and sticky coming out? A: Chewing gum. The holy passion of Friendship is of so sweet and steady and loyal and enduring a nature that it will last through a whole lifetime, if not asked to lend money. – Mark Twain, "Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar" You recoil from the crude; you tend naturally toward the exquisite. You never know how many friends you have until you rent a house on the beach. You are number 6! Who is number one? This was the most unkindest cut of all. – William Shakespeare, "Julius Caesar" Fame is a vapor; popularity an accident; the only earthly certainty is oblivion. – Mark Twain

2.2 Why not?

Q: How many Oregonians does it take to screw in a light bulb? A: Three. One to screw in the light bulb and two to fend off all those Californians trying to share the experience. You'd like to do it instantaneously, but that's too slow. You have a strong appeal for members of your own sex. Always do right. This will gratify some people and astonish the rest. – Mark Twain FORTUNE PROVIDES QUESTIONS FOR THE GREAT ANSWERS: 15 A: The Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Q: What was the greatest achievement in taxidermy? Q: Why do WASPs play golf ? A: So they can dress like pimps. Q: How many psychiatrists does it take to change a light bulb? A: Only one, but it takes a long time, and the light bulb has to really want to change. In the plot, people came to the land; the land loved them; they worked and struggled and had lots of children. There was a Frenchman who talked funny and a greenhorn from England who was a fancy-pants but when it came to the crunch he was all courage. Those novels would make you retch. – Canadian novelist Robertson Davies, on the generic Canadian novel. Your step will soil many countries. Many a writer seems to think he is never profound except when he can't understand his own meaning. – George D. Prentice

Q: How do you keep a moron in suspense? Water, taken in moderation cannot hurt anybody. – Mark Twain You like to form new friendships and make new acquaintances. Have a place for everything and keep the thing somewhere else; this is not advice, it is merely custom. – Mark Twain You definitely intend to start living sometime soon. You will have long and healthy life. The Least Successful Collector Betsy Baker played a central role in the history of collecting. She was employed as a servant in the house of John Warburton

(1682-1759) who had amassed a fine collection of 58 first edition plays, including most of the works of Shakespeare. One day Warburton returned home to find 55 of them charred beyond legibility. Betsy had either burned them or used them as pie bottoms. The remaining three folios are now in the British Museum. The only comparable literary figure was the maid who in 1835 burned the manuscript of the first volume of Thomas Carlyle's "The History of the French Revolution", thinking it was wastepaper. – Stephen Pile, "The Book of Heroic Failures" Try to relax and enjoy the crisis. – Ashleigh Brilliant Truth is the most valuable thing we have – so let us economize it. – Mark Twain Don't look back, the lemmings are gaining on you.

Expect the worst, it's the least you can do. There is no character, howsoever good and fine, but it can be destroyed by ridicule, howsoever poor and witless. Observe the ass, for instance: his character is about perfect, he is the choicest spirit among all the humbler animals, yet see what ridicule has brought him to. Instead of feeling complimented when we are called an ass, we are left in doubt. – Mark Twain, "Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar" Q: What's the difference between USL and the Titanic? A: The Titanic had a band. Someone is speaking well of you.

How unusual! Big book, big bore. – Callimachus Q: How many IBM CPU's does it take to do a logical right shift? A: 33. 1 to hold the bits and 32 to push the register. It may or may not be worthwhile, but it still has to be done. Love is in the offing. Be affectionate to one who adores you. You'll never see all the places, or read all the books, but fortunately, they're not all recommended. Excellent time to become a missing person.

If you stand on your head, you will get footprints in your hair. When I was younger, I could remember anything, whether it had happened or not; but my faculties are decaying now and soon I shall be so I cannot remember any but the things that never happened. It is sad to go to pieces like this but we all have to do it. – Mark Twain "...The name of the song is called 'Haddocks' Eyes'!" "Oh, that's the name of the song, is it?" Alice said, trying to feel interested. "No, you don't understand," the Knight said, looking a little vexed. "That's what the name is called. The name really is, 'The Aged Aged Man.'" "Then I ought to have said "That's what the song is called'?" Alice corrected herself. "No, you oughtn't: that's quite another thing! The song is called 'Ways and Means': but that's only what it is called you know!" "Well, what is the song then?" said Alice, who was by this time completely bewildered. "I was coming to that," the Knight said. "The song really is "A-sitting on a Gate": and the tune's my own invention." – Lewis Carroll, "Through the Looking Glass" Hope that the day after you die is a nice day. You have a strong appeal for members of the opposite sex. It's lucky you're going so slowly, because you're going in the wrong direction. Good night to spend with family, but avoid arguments with your mate's new lover. "I wonder", he said to himself, "what's in a book while it's closed. Oh, I know it's full of letters printed on paper, but all the same, something must be happening, because as soon as I open it, there's a whole story with people I don't know yet and all kinds of adventures and battles." – Bastian B. Bux He hath eaten me out of house and home. – William Shakespeare, "Henry IV" Q: Why did the chicken cross the road? A: He was giving it last rites.

Cold hands, no gloves. Don't tell any big lies today. Small ones can be just as effective. You will gain money by an illegal action. Q: Heard about the <ethnic> who couldn't spell? A: He spent the night in a warehouse. The last thing one knows in constructing a work is what to put first. – Blaise Pascal Time to be aggressive. Go after a tattooed Virgo. You are magnetic in your bearing. Beauty and harmony are as necessary to you as the very breath of life. You get along very well with everyone except animals and people. Exercise caution in your daily affairs.

2.3 Why?

Q: Why do WASPs play golf ? A: So they can dress like pimps. You will get what you deserve. You will pass away very quickly. If one cannot enjoy reading a book over and over again, there is no use in reading it at all. – Oscar Wilde You are only young once, but you can stay immature indefinitely. You will have long and healthy life. Q: What do little WASPs want to be when they grow up? A: The very best person they can possibly be. Beware of a dark-haired man with a loud tie. Avert misunderstanding by calm, poise, and balance. You look like a million dollars. All green and wrinkled.

VITA

Bugs Bunny was born in 1940 in Brooklyn, New York and the product of many creators: Ben "Bugs" Hardaway (who created a prototypical version of Bugs Bunny in 1938's Porky's Hare Hunt), Bob Clampett, Tex Avery, Robert McKimson (created the definitive Bugs Bunny character design), Chuck Jones, and Friz Freleng. According to Mel Blanc, his original voice actor, his accent is an equal blend of someone from the Bronx and someone from Brooklyn. Many children love Bugs Bunny for his funniness and character.

He was nominated 4 times to Academy Award and won once with "Knighty Knight Bugs" in 1958.
